

Ambient Lighting

Ambient lighting is essential for transforming an event space into an experience. It sets the tone of an event as soon as participants walk into the room. Ambient lighting can be customized to match a specific color palette or event theme and encourage guests to experience a unique mood in the environment. The following sections summarize a few different options for ambient lighting elements provided by the Amora Event Group.

